

LUXURY DEVELOPMENT LEVEL LOS ANGELES TO BE FEATURED IN UPCOMING EPISODE OF ABC'S HIT ROMANCE REALITY SERIES *THE BACHELORETTE

May 27, 2016 (Los Angeles, CA) – Level Furnished Living, downtown Los Angeles' only luxury development of its kind, will be featured in an upcoming episode of The Bachelorette. The episode will feature a special group date after-party at LEVEL's lavish, 3700 sq. ft. L Club rooftop terrace, while the lucky suitors get to know the newest Bachelorette, Joelle "JoJo" Fletcher. The episode is scheduled to air Monday, May 30, 2016, at 8/7c on ABC.

JoJo Fletcher first stole America's heart on Ben Higgins' season of The Bachelor, where she charmed both Ben and Bachelor Nation with her bubbly personality and sweet, girl-next-door wit and spunk. As their relationship progressed, the Texas real estate developer struggled to open up; once she found herself falling for Ben, however, she finally shared her feelings and became one of the final two women vying to be the future Mrs. Higgins.

In a shocking twist, Ben confessed his love to both women, leaving them each optimistic that they would be "the one." Ultimately, JoJo was left heartbroken when Ben chose to let her go in an emotionally gut-wrenching finale. But that experience didn't stop her desire to find her perfect soul mate — it only made it stronger. Now, JoJo embarks on her own journey to find love as the Bachelorette in the 12th edition of ABC's hit romance reality series, Mondays (8:00–11:00 p.m., ET/PT) on ABC.

ABOUT THE BACHELORETTE

Romance, rivalry and, quite possibly, true love! One lucky woman gets the opportunity to find the man of her dreams — and, she hopes, her groom-to-be — in this hit reality series. This single and eligible bachelorette — a confident, successful and sensitive woman who is ready to find love — will embark on a romantic journey as she meets single and eligible charming men. As the Bachelorette gets to know each one, she'll continue to narrow the field. They will travel to exotic locations and spend time getting to know each other; she will introduce them to her family and friends and meet some of theirs. At the end of her romantic voyage, if she has found Mr. Right, will there be a proposal — and from whom? Hosted by Chris Harrison, The Bachelorette is produced by Next Entertainment in association with Warner Horizon Television.
